Love has the bitter sweetest taste
All these memories captured in your face
How cliché of me to think our love could end perfectly

You keep me from feeling alive
Took the breath out of me
I'm thankful for all the lies Taught me how to leave

She will make you realize
That you need me
But you will never have me back
Isn't that bittersweet?
x2

Love and heartbreak control everywhere I go
And how I see
When my heart catches wind of your image
Hello anxiety

You stole my sense of what's right
From wrong
But you don't phase me now
Cause I am too strong

She will make you realize
That you need me
Isn't that bittersweet?
x2

I told you I wouldn't wait around Forever
But this one, this one makes me so much Better
He's beautiful in everyday
More than I could say Now I've found what I've been searching for My sight of love

Isn't that bittersweet?

She will make you realize
That you need me
Isn't that bittersweet?
x2

You will never have me back have me back
have me back
isn't that bittersweet?
you will never have me back
have me back
have me back
isn't that bittersweet?
