Emptiness has a face, take a look in my eyes
The windows to my soul are tinted Traded substance for space so you can't see inside
My deepest thoughts are completely hidden

Split apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
If you cut me, I'll bleed, I'm just like you; no angel, no
angel

Send me up into flames with the strike of a match
Burn this halo and wings of paper Was it safer to think I hurt like you do...feel the pain that you do? No angel

Split apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
angel

All these efforts in vain to crack this shell
What's inside? Even I don't know myself
Well enough to define but enough to lie
These walls are weak; don't follow me

Split apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
If you cut me, I'll bleed, I'm just like you; no angel, no
angel
