Oh voices go away, you fill my head again,
These days drift on all the same,
I call and call your name

Well I have nothing without these words,
I'll take them back if you believe they're cursed
I didn't mean to make it so much worse
Oh tie me up, oh tie me up, oh tie me by the waist
And hush my mouth, and hush my mouth as I kneel
before these gates

Oh pressure everyday, it's mine I let it say
And why can't I break this down, I see how I'm seen now

Well I have nothing without these words,
I'll take them back if you believe they're cursed
I didn't mean to make it so much worse
Oh tie me up, oh tie me up, oh tie me by the waist
And hush my mouth, and hush my mouth as I kneel
before these gates
