"Ultra-lite"

You always fall asleep, every single night as beautiful
As filtered light.
Let your eyes close and dream with all your might, help
Me keep a good boy tight.
{ Nobody wants to let go }
You turned around to wave,
"I wish you wouldn't go so soon"
All the time you spend with me spread out across my room
Helps to keep us both in tune
{ Nobody wants to let go, nobody wants to let go...
This is the skin that holds all of us in and keeps us
From blowing apart }
You always fall asleep, every single night as beautiful
As filtered light sometimes just the thought of it and Sometimes just the sight helps to keep me ultra-lite
Nobody wants to let go, nobody wants to let go, nobody Wants to let go... This is the skin that holds all of Us in and keeps us from blowing apart it holds all of us
In and keeps us from blowing apart, holds all of us in
And keeps us from blowing apart, hold all of us in and Keep us from blowing apart.
