Inspired by this notion I will praise eternal Sound
Primitive vibration in the ocean of void
Shaping patterns of creation
In a harmony obscure

The eternal Sound reminiscent of your damnation
It's harmonics echoed through the strings of life
Sirens will sing
Music of the Spheres

Is it the void that creates
All these sounds or is it my mind?
All these stars are vibrations of chaos
Strings of life manifesting zero and ones
The primitive equation bringing light and composing
The music of the spheres

Galaxies dance to the rhythm of OM
Illusions of freedom and delusions of god
Oscillations that manifest themselves as souls
Sirens will sing Music of the Spheres

In the hologram you entered when you cried first time
Emanating from the tree of life
Angels will hymn the harmonies of a new soul
Spreading the vibrations far across the stars
The melody of a heavenly music
Never heard by man

The eternal Sound reminiscent of your damnation
It's harmonics echoed through the strings of life

And the word was converted to action
Harmony in space
My will is just a sad overtone
