It started off like all good things do a little after two whatcha gonna do I don't have a car neither do you you I don't live very far we could walk too my friends are going home I could go home with you we could keep it quiet they wouldn't have a clue
You smell so nice, dance so well, it's so dark,
They can't tell
What you think they'd say if they knew

We're from two different worlds we barely know each other
How was I to know that you were with another We're from two different world and now that we're lovers
Nobody knows we keep it undercover

We're from two different worlds and now that we're
Nobody knows we keep it undercover

The night's getting longer with every step You're askin me know are we there yet Anticipation is makin me sweat are you thinkin it through, is it so wrong to do it's a complicated situation, lovers and friends when does it end, which one goes no one knows is it time to pretend, it's a complicated situation, lovers and friends can we begin, meet me here, let's go there only if you dare

We're from two different worlds we barely know each other
We're from two different world and now that we're
Nobody knows we keep it undercover

We're from two different worlds and now that we're
Nobody knows we keep it undercover

Hey I promise I'll call you when I get into your city Hold your breath, say bye to your friends before you do it you know the drill, a good girl keeps a secret nobody knows but everyone knows, there's something goin on between us
