I would know who roars mostly like the beast going out to hunt and then back to feast
I consider you, I consider you
I consider you
From your hill of beans I will sit and roar thinking to myself: What are you waiting for ?
I consider you, I consider you
I consider you

Let's go tonight,
let the beast run a mile
with the dogs and the cattle , let's go.
I know you said
it's like a heel to the head,
or a girl in your bed and in your arms.

Curiosity oh you do not know but with a gang of me you'll be on your toe,
I consider you, I consider you
I consider you
For a bit of skirt you do go my way singing to the sky, oh like a bird of prey,
I consider you, I consider you
I consider you

Let's go tonight,
let the beast run a mile
with the dogs and the cattle, let's go.
I know you said
it's like a heel to the head,
or a girl in your bed and in your arms.

For the butter on your bread,
for the dying and the dead,
for your cheeks turning red, let's go.
Let's go tonight,
let the beast run a mile
with the dogs and the cattle , let's go.
