When the bluebells come a calling
Oh yeah I'll be there waiting
Waiting for you
You make me feel like summer sunshine
Falling through the leaves
On days when the water is so blue

Some things stay in range
Only when the seasons change

When I said I love your way
I mean every word I say
In a world where the lovers go away
I'm hoping that forever we can stay

So when the sleigh bells come a calling
Oh yeah and the snowflakes start falling
I'll be thinking of you
But it would change if we're ever
Touching oh Under the Mistletoe
I'll go say no no no
No Not on this winter day cos I know

Some things stay in range
Only when the seasons change

When I said I love your way
I mean every word I say
In a world where the lovers go away
I'm hoping that forever we can stay

Give me the storm and I'll stand in the rain
Give me the heat and I'll burn out insane
Send me to space and I'll hang out there
Waiting for you in my easy chair
Oh ohhhh no
Ohh ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
I love your way

When I said I love your way
I mean every word I say
In a world where the lovers go away

I'm hoping that forever on the other side of never
I'm hoping that forever we can stay
