It started with an email
You signed it with an x
Don't try to deny it
You knew what would come next
You were charming and funny
And you even called me doll
I can't believe that I bought it

You knew that I would fall
You knew that I would fall

Now I could just delete you (with the click of a button)
You wouldn't even feel it
There's no reason to keep you

You only exist in cyberspace

You were my Internet breakup
The whole world saw us fighting
And even when I cried
And even when it hurt
I couldn't hide I couldn't hide
Cause drama is exciting

You were my Internet breakup
The whole world saw us fighting
And even when I cried
And even when it hurt
I couldn't hide I couldn't hide
'Cause drama is exciting

You were my Internet breakup
The whole world saw us fighting
And even when I cried
And even when it hurt
I couldn't hide I couldn't hide
'Cause drama is exciting

It ended with an email
Can't believe you took that route
Now I have the hindsight
To know that I lucked out

Now I know what I'm wanting
And I guess I always knew
Won't waste another minute
I know I'm done with you
I know I'm done with you

Now I could just delete you (with the click of a button)
You wouldn't even feel it
There's no reason to keep you

You only exist in cyberspace

You were my Internet breakup
The whole world knew about it
And even though I'm fine
And even though it's passed
It happened and it hurt
So I cannot just forget it

You were my Internet breakup
And even though I'm fine
And even though it's passed

I don't ever want to see your videos
I stopped reading your blog
And you can forget about twitter
Like I'd listen to your music
I'm just gonna delete you

You only exist in cyberspace

You were my Internet breakup (Internet breakup)
And even though I'm fine
And even though it's passed (You were my Internet breakup)
So I cannot just forget it

(Are you happy now?
Have you got it all figured out?
I hope you're living large
Take another fool and break her heart)

You were my Internet breakup

And even though I'm fine
And even though it's passed
