Are you happy now?
Have you got it all figured out?
I hope you're living large
Take another fool and break his heart

Are you better now?
Everything you dreamed about?
Someone rich and you'll fall in love
But it's not him you're thinking of

Take these memories
Throw them all away
So I can't recall
The pain of yesterday

Take my broken core
Far away from here
But every place I go
I just want to disappear

Are you happy now?
Have you got it all figured out?
I hope you're living large
Take another fool and break his heart

Are you better now?
Everything you dreamed about?
Someone rich and you'll fall in love
But it's not him you're thinking of

But it's not him you're thinking of

When did you lose your smile?
I tried to be strong Lifting the veil I was
The fool all along

So much more complex
Carnal through and through Kept your secrets buried deep
But now I see right through you

I'm glad that I've escaped the wake of your destruction path
These scars, they'll last forever but now I'm awake, so alive

Are you happy now?
Have you got it all figured out?
I hope you're living large
Take another fool and break his heart

Are you better now?
Everything you dreamed about?
Someone rich and you'll fall in love
But it's not him you're thinking of

But it's not him you're thinking of
