Love changes everything
I see my life in daydreams
Little scenes of you and me

And there you are singing to me
Soft little melodies
On your ukulele
Swinging in the summer breeze

I could think about it
A thousand more times
I could think about you love
The rest of my life

Uh ooh I could
Uh ooh I could
And I know love has treated you coldly before
Left you lonely
Oh but not anymore
I was made to love you strongly

Time doesn't exist
Melts away in a mist
With the touch of your lips
Oh oh

I could think about it
A thousand more times
I could think about you love
The rest of my life

Uh ooh I could
Uh ooh I could
And I know love has treated you coldly before
Oh but not anymore
I was made to love you strongly

I could think about it
A thousand more times
I could think about you love

The rest of my life

Uh ooh I could

Uh ooh I could

And I know love has treated you coldly before

Oh but not anymore

I was made to love you strongly
