How deep is a well? I am sinking down, I am sinking down
Look up to you, but you can't be found, you can't be found.
Call to the owl who has his words, can't be heard Looks down at me, see something I can't see, I can't see.

Grace falls down on quiet hearts
Just when I think it might fall apart.
Grace falls down on quiet hearts
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell.

Here in this well of mine water starts to rise, starts to rise
Pushing me to top of the tide, I will rise
I'll follow your eyes and...

Grace falls down on quiet hearts
Just when you think you might fall apart
Grace falls down on quiet hearts
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell.

Grace falls down on quiet hearts
Grace falls down on quiet hearts
Just when you think you might fall apart
Grace falls down on quiet hearts
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell
You don't have to yell, don't have to yell.
