Are there words enough
To describe the way I feel?
Can a silly crush
Turn into something so real

In a thousand ways
In a thousand hidden places
You have touched my heart
And the feeling never changes...

I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you
I adore you

If the world were mine
I would lay it at your feet
Just to see you shine
It's the only thing I need..

I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you
I adore you

BRIDGE
With every kiss, every touch
Oh, you have the power
Oh, to life me up
Oh, and I'm...

I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you
I adore you

I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you
I adore you
