"Glass"

Sunrays have left me out to burn
I feel the poison sink in
Obsessed I throw my youth away
I'm powerless against you

You're so far away
It's hard to see you
Through this looking glass
I'll run to you
I know it's true that you
Wont ever let me down, again

Ten years with nothing worth to show
Still I refuse to leave you
Slowly I start to shut down
You suck the air within me

You're so far away
It's hard to see you
Through this looking glass
I'll run to you
I know it's true that you
Wont ever let me down, again

And you burn
And you burn
And you burn

You're so far away
It's hard to see you
Through this looking glass
I'll run to you
I know it's true that you
Wont ever let me down, again
