Cars, Roads, Beaches, Fireworks,
It sounds pretty sad when I write it all down,
What a stalker it screams,
But hopefully it shows how much you mean to me,
And as I think back to last year,
And my initial fear,
That I'd be saying goodbye forever,
That I would cut another tether with love,
Then you gimme a shove,
And you say:

Well I love you and I miss you my friend,
I don't know when I'm gonna see you again,
But it makes me feel sick to the core,
That we can't talk together anymore,
I love you and I miss you my friend,
I don't know when I'm gonna see you again,
But it makes me feel sick to the core,
That we can't talk together anymore,

And so we read our special letters in bed,

Oh the lobster
and the albatross,
And you're right back there in my head,
So I try to force you out again,
Oh forget about forget about her,
It doesn't matter what she said to you,
But I find it so regrettable,
That it isn't something I can do,
And we're both so damn upsettable,
And the love was so damn memorable,
And the song remains the same it goes... goes...

Well I love you and I miss you my friend,
I don't know when I'm gonna see you again,
But it makes me feel sick to the core,
That we can't talk together anymore,
I love you and I miss you my friend,
I don't know when I'm gonna see you again,
But it makes me feel sick to the core,
That we can't talk together anymore,

Talk together anymore...
