The best days of this century
Started out so innocently
I think you thought of everything
It's like you were on ecstasy.

I don't know, it's very nice and so are you
Oh, I don't know what to do!
We were right, so very right
Then again my heart's a shell, can't you tell

Janice Melt maybe it's your celebrity
That made you wanna slum it with me.
And then it starts all up again
In this town love's pretend

Sorry about your lobotomy
Removed the part that had all of me
Said it was only me and you
Except your husband, that was true!

I don't know, it's very nice and so are you
Oh, I don't know what to do!
We were right, so very right
Then again my heart's a shell, can't you tell

Janice Melt, I've been waiting you too long and I'm lost
I've been waiting you too long, waiting you too long
Ah, ah, ah!

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la!
