Uh

Uh

We used to wear rugged boots, now it's all tailored suits
Audemar BK for my criminal recruits
Champagne flutes, bumpin rhythm in the blues
My partner Maybach moves, we might end up in the news
Or end up in the tombs, or livin in the boondocks ridin by the whose
I buy, buy it soon
See the situation, we sophisticated goons
I know you live by the gun then you die by it too
You niggas call me Prophecy, draggin in philosophies
White on white bragging, call that motherfucker
Socrates
Rat ass niggas writing for a block of cheese Catch me out in finner stuntin, yea I'm bout my guapanese
My shoot game serve, dough service, guapanese
Niggas say I'm blessed, my bad, I forgot to sneeze
There your reasons go bitch
I got some tissues for your issues, tell them blow this

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long
You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long
You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long

Roger, roger, tell em roger that
It's the gold teeth, French brazed, call me Project Pat
With the stalky cap, face a mask on, probly strapped

It's the rocker cap, turn my swag on, holla back
Throw a dollar at a biddage, tell er suck my Diddy Cuz they hatin on my clitty, cuz we made it when we did it
Hit it cuz they didn't
My mama always told me keep your mind on your money
Boy you better pay attention
Ride with the pretty nigga, woopy, no chauffeur
Paint lookin like a drippin smoothy, no coaster
The game if full of posers, big dog bulldozer
Flap up on em like toasters, wake them up like soldiers
Cuz heaven need a villain like hell need a newer idol
You could flip the crib and call just renew the title
For now I'm pro pimpin like them do what I do
Smoking killa but dog's still suicidal

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long
You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long
You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long

It will hit you on the head
You don't even gotta hit me now babe
Just as she was getting led
You can see me long gone
How you gonna feel now? You know what they say
Really you know that we don't come how we get down
Knew that was a Rocky ahead
And you don't really what is up
No, you can't get it wrong

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long
You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long

People money watch, split ahead now
They countin every day down
Hittin on me long

You know your way, where you're headin now?
Me, I want everything
It won't take me long
