I can see that something's put clouds in your eyes Probably something that you're trying to hide
But it's too late, that ain't gonna work for me I am here for you if you let me be

I remember again how I let lonely be my only friend I can never believe that Someone real would stay and show me how to pray to hold on to A love that had a reason for those days I thought would never end

Never dreamed that I could find a friend that could understand
Wanna let you know that I'm here
If you give me a chance

CHORUS:

Doesn't matter what it takes Never too many heart breaks
I give you my heart
And you can count me
Listen harder, hear me say I will never walk away Anything you need, you can count on me

It's been a while since you and I really have talked
But we picked up right where we left off
We just laugh until we cry
We don't know the reasons why
All that we can do is try Cause no one really knows what kind of change our lives can bring

Never dreamed that I could find a friend that would last
And a lifetime's not too long to live as friends

CHORUS

BRIDGE:

And I believe in us
Cause we've made it through the rain, time and time again, yeah

Good, bad, hard and sad
It's only made us strong together
I know forever
You will be a part of me
