inside out and upside down who qualifies to try to judge me now love is what grows off the synthetic of happiness i wear a warning sticker that says health to the hazardous since all of minneapolis fell into that river it wouldnt disturb a word that i deliver i found my confusion i lost your religion analyst is i am corrupt the optimism from the dock i fishin feed the worm i hook write another peice read another book once upon a time there was the end do you mind if i steal this pen? im not a big fan as i once was i gotta learn to respect that lunch buzz such and such and nothin much what the fuck girl i'm thinkin that we should couple up so here i stand from the outside in tryin to recall how i swam to this island i wonder if i was to scream till my voice quits would they let me push the buttons would they let me hold the joystick well maybe if i acted a little crazy they would play me they would feed me to they babies cant help but laugh at everything i cry about cuz ive been staring at myself from the inside out well whos that knockin on my head so early in the a.m must be the landlord im late on my payment or maybe its my ex cuz i owe her some affection its probaly the deparment of corrections cuz i've been doin it wrong for to damn long chewing on a soggy blade of grass put the money in the bag and make it fast cuz cant none of yall fools save my ass how can i hold when i dont know what i hold the outsider tryin to climb out of the cold time and time again i question the answer cause the soldier always falls in love with the dancer i cant play passing truth hurts

i wanna rock the boat but i wanna rock you first so if i was meant to say everything thats in my mouth ima start right here from the inside out
