(verse 1)

I've walked along, this lonely road,
got followed to this empty room,
with all my thoughts that I kept tucked away,
and memories I can not replace, hey, hey..

oo oo, oo oo oo, oo oo, time is ticking

(chorus)

Say you will format a home,
say you will format a home, home,
say you will format a home, oo whoa,
say you will format a home, home, home....

(verse 2)

I've walked along this lonely road,
I found a bed, to lay upon,
with hesitation we get through today, hey,
and with your eyes you seem to walk away, hey, hey!!

oo oo, oo oo oo, oo oo, time is ticking

(chorus)

Say you will format a home,
say you will format a home, home,
say you will format a home, oo whoa,
say you will format a home, home, home....

oo oo, oo oo oo, oo oo, time is ticking, time is ticking

(guitar solo)

(chorus)

Say you will format a home,
say you will format a home, home,
say you will format a home, oo whoa,
say you will format a home, home, home....

oo oo, oo oo oo, oo oo, time is ticking
hey hey, hey hey hey, hey hey, time is ticking.
