(chorus)

Out of your element, you're out of your element, why
don't you do it anyway.

(Verse 1)

Heal, I know, it's harder, hard when you feel so, lost for nothing at all.

Life it scares me though I'm not a child, I make mistakes with no consequence, don't let the fear take you no no no.

(Chorus)

Out of your element, you're out of your element, why
don't you do it anyway.

Out of your element, you're out of your element, why
don't you do it anyway?

(Verse 2)

Hurt, for love?... the honor? You're so ready for me to,
hurt from more than just words, but ghosts that wander round the darkest place of this house, I'll see it never comes between you and me no, no, when you're....

(Chorus)

Out of your element, you're out of your element, why
don't you do it anyway.

Out of your element, you're out of your element, why
don't you do it anyway

Oh whoa oh...

So, you're lost....but they worship the ground you're on.. Say "I won, I won without even racing!"

(Pete solo guitar)
