Did you ever want to
Ever fall in love you
Had me from the start did you ever have a clue did you
That I loved you
Smothered thoughts of just you
Chemical and dark blue
But you don't have a clue do you

All I can see is scenery
All in the way you look at me
But even if far I'll make it true
I'll run til you're out of view
I'm so slit my throat in love with you
It's less of a mess than I've been through
Hardly enough I'm still confused
I'll run til you're out of view

Did you ever want to
Ever fall in love you
Had me from the start did you ever have a clue did you
That I loved you
Smothered thoughts of just you
Chemical and dark blue
But you don't have a clue do you
And you don't have a

Hollow heart I'll hold onto you
Can't get enough I'm chasing you

Let it set it gets into you
I'll run til you're out of view
Indicate all that I could do
Said and done I was safe with you
Running til I ran into you
Don't you get it by now oh my heads in the clouds

Did you ever want to
Ever fall in love you
Had me from the start did you ever have a clue did you
That I loved you
Smothered thoughts of just you
Chemical and dark blue

But you don't have a clue do you

(love somewhere, lost somewhere)
(ever fall in love, ever fall in love)

Did you ever want to
Ever fall in love you
Had me from the start did you ever have a clue did you
That I loved you
Smothered thoughts of just you
Chemical and dark blue
But you don't have a clue do you
And it's too late
It's too late
It's too late
It's too late
