I tried so hard
To fall into your life
Breathe words that might breed life
And change the way you saw yourself I've seen it all before
When I never let you down
Every night we heard the sounds that made you
Lose your faith but I know you haven't lost it all
You haven't lost it all

Oh but you can't find a reason to
Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through
Oh but you can't find a reason to
Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through at all

I left behind the only trust I knew, the face of which was you
Had I believed I would be leaving that would not be true
You never let me down
Every night we heard the sounds that made you
Lose your faith but I know you haven't lost it all
You haven't lost it all

Oh but you can't find a reason to

Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through
Oh but you can't find a reason to
Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through

We get one to rid don't fall in love
Oh not yet the feeling is not fair
Be there to calm start again
(are we coming through)
Look up, we've got it all

You can't find a reason to live life and leave it
Find love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through

Oh but you can't find a reason to
Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through
Oh but you can't find a reason to
Live life and leave it find
Love and mistreat it
Coming through are we coming through at al
