I feel your heart beneath your chest
Each beat is effortless
Like it's never been broken
(you'll never get it I won't stop forget it)
Watch I see the way you move
The light that shines off you won't fade or keep me waiting
(you'll never get it I won't stop forget it)
There's no sense making up
(There's no sense making up)
There's no sense making up
(There's no sense making)

Oxygen, when I'm all tied up it's the most I can do for you
Once again, I'm never alone, all we are is all behind us
There's something about you lately
Oxygen, you can not find love with me

I hate how you can pull me
Way down watch my heartbeat
Slow down I won't keep you waiting
And I've found bullshit when you Throw down hold your own and Know how to keep things complicated
(you'll never get it I won't stop forget it)

Oxygen, when I'm all tied up it's the most I can do for
you
Once again, I'm never alone, all we are is all behind us
There's something about you lately
Oxygen, you can not find love with me

She clipped your wings and she let you down and
You sold your soul to leave the ground
(and you fly, you fly)
She clipped your wings and she let you down and
You saw your body leave the ground
(and you fly, and you fly)
She clipped your wings and she let you down and
You sold your soul to leave the ground
(and you fly, and you fly)

Oxygen, when I'm all tied up it's the most I can do for
you
Once again, I'm never alone, all we are is all behind us
There's something about you lately
Oxygen, you can not find love with me
