It was clinical we'd break away
It was typical this stray lit day we'd save
(It was all about to change)
It was all about to change the way we'd break
(Clear as day)
Alive we'd lay
(A day with rain)
But not for one
Second to change, it was all about to change the way we'd break
But we won't break

I never tried too hard to get you
Ever tried to fall to catch you
You'll never know who I really am
If I ever saw inside I let you
Live a lie and I'll forget you
You'll never know who I really am

It was criminal I lay awake
Never lyrical you'd help me waste my time
(It was all about to fade)
It was all about to fade away or break
(Clear as day)
Do you feel fake?
(A day with rain)
And time will run
We separate, it was all about to change the way we'd break
But we won't break

I never tried too hard to get you
Ever tried to fall to catch you
You'll never know who I really am
If I ever saw inside I let you
Live a lie and I'll forget you
You'll never know who I really am
Who I am, who I am, who I am

Oh I've come to find you out
I'll bury all the doubt that I'm alive again,
Alive again soon everyone will know

I'm not fine but I'm fine without you here,
I'm not fine but I'm fine without you here, at all, at all
Without you here

I never tried too hard to get you
Ever tried to fall to catch you
You'll never know who I really am
If I ever saw inside I let you
Live a lie and I'll forget you
You'll never know who I really am
Who I am, who I am, who I am, who I am, who I am
