I'm headin on track
I'm turning on back
Cause honey I don't know
She completes my life
Cause I wasn't all in
I'm done with all that
And now I gotta
let him know
Said ya never lookin back
But gimme one try
You say I'm still the same
But I changed my path
You're better than the best
Forever no lie,lie
And I don't wanna be here lonely
I don't wanna stay away
For another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And I won't throw my promises away
Away,yeah
I don't wanna stay away
I don't want nobody but you
You say you don't buy
How hard I'm gone tru
I'll never give up
Gonna change your mind
With a little romance
And maybe you'll find
That now I'm gonna make a show
No we're never lookin back
Just leave it in the past
I'll never be the same
Cause you changed my path
You know I love you best
Forever no lie
And I don't want to here lonely
I wanna stay away
For another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And won't throw my promises away
Away,yeah
I don't wanna stay away

I don't want nobody
But you
And if I have to live in a lifetime
Without all the ways you make me feel
Then I'd have to lose my mind
I'd be so broken into pieces
Over you
See I can't stay away from you
I can't erase the two of us
From my mind
Whenever I try
It's like a backfire
Blast from the past
I can see through mirror, mirror
On the wall
How'd I ever
Let you fall
I guess I need my baby
Whoah whoah
Away, yeah
Away, yeah
I don't want nobody
But you
