oh my ghost came by,
said who do you love the most,
who you gonna call before you die.
oh my ghost came by here,
said who do you love the most,
who you gonna sing to before you go.

oh hey, heaven is a place we know,
heaven is the arms that hold us long before we go.
oh hey, heaven is the place we know,
heaven is the arms that hold us long before we go.

oh my ghost came by here,
said who do you love the most,
who you gonna sing to before you go.

oh hey heaven is the place we know,
heaven is the arms that hold us before we go.
oh hey heaven is the place we know,
heaven is the arms that hold us long before we go.

oh if you're there when the world comes together,
oh if you're there I will be blessed.

I will be blessed.

oh you're there when the world comes together,
oh if you're there I will be blessed.

I will be blessed...
