Something slimy trying
To take our home away
Sinking trough depression
No food enough to remain.
Illeum attacking
Bastard saw it's chance
Appendicitis 'round the corner
Crohn's approaching it's way.

Ugly creature squeezing us
Right inside our lair.
Bouncing, hitting, making sounds
Intruder out we say.
Baby, baby to be born,
Suffered us in womb
His blood denying
Blood defying
(Creating)cursing bloody doom.

We twist and turn,
Hoping she will understand
Hearing screams in distance
But it all remains the same.
Down below
Near the very end
Friends scream in panic
Some big, growing red.

Ugly creature squeezing us
Right inside our lair.
Bouncing, hitting, making sounds
Intruder out we say.
Baby, baby to be born,
Suffered us in womb
His blood denying
Blood defying
(Creating)cursing bloody doom.

Convulsions started,
Throwing him out,
Pain unbearable,

Poop mixed with blood.

Blood, blood, blood!

Evil forces screaming
Keep the line
Push and press trough
Bellow underground.
Trough the pain stronger
Moving trough tunnel light
One last try army
And we prevailed trough night.

Ugly creature that squeezed us
Is now outside our lair.
Our army made it right,
Intruder's out we say.
Baby, baby now is born
Out from our womb,
Made it trough first cry
Till next time goodbye.
