Album: Take your Chance (2003)

Oh I was born

To be with you I cannot get enough from the moment,

When I saw your face, my love

And I'll never let you go oh even when I'm blue and I promise,

That I'll never, never break your lonely heart

You're the reason for my feeling, don't tear apart

Refrain:

If I can't have you tonight oh I'll lose my heaven,

Oh I'll lose my heaven

If I can't have you by my side

I'll close my eyes till seven,

I close my eyes till seven

Don't be afraid of your lonely heart

I miss you more and more everybody needs someone to love,

For sure you're tearing down paradise

But you can't stop real love cause I'll never,

Never break your lonely heart

You're the reasons for my feelings, don't tear apart

Refrain

Oh you know my heart is crying

And I feel it is the end my love is never dying

You'll always be my friend

Refrain
