I found it hard to share my trust, I let you have it
I swore to them, I'd never go back I forgot my nasty habit

These lips are sore and will never heal
From kissing your feet since we were only sixteen

Maybe you we're wrong
Maybe we we're on for too long
I gave you my heart, You said it wasn't enough
I've done this before

You wouldn't keep your hands
Out of my pockets and I tried
To hold this anger back I once left aside
My legs are always sore and my knees are never clean
From the time I've wasted at your door
Forever I Would kneel

My legs are always sore and my knees are never clean
All the time wasted at your door
Just saying how I feel

Maybe you we're wrong
Maybe we we're on for too long
I gave you my heart, You said it wasn't enough
I've done this before

You kept pulling me back and stringing me in I'm done with this talk I'm not starting again
Because darling, oh darling

Maybe I was wrong
Maybe we we're on for too long
I gave you my heart, You said it wasn't enough
I've done this before

I gave you my heart, You said it wasn't enough
I've done this before
