Can you see the look that is in my eyes, what I'm feeling like
As the clock ticks by, I can only try When hope moves in and mornings thin you can the fire
It can take us higher, It can take us higher

And I hope that I will see this place again
And I hope that nothing will have changed tomorrow
And I hope that this is all for the best
Another day without the rest that I need

And now you see my face on the other side
Oh why, why should I even try?
I don't know, I don't really know what's going on
So I'll take the next best seat
Yes I'll take the next best seat back home

And I hope that I will see this place again
And I hope that nothing will have changed tomorrow
And I hope that this is all for the best
Another day without the rest that I need

So I need to find a place, a place where I can see
A place where I can feel at home when I'ts only me

Feel at home
