Lyrics: j. joyce/n. hembly

I was a dirty little swirl little crazy girl
A runaway child in a fatherless world
And everybody tried to be the one to save me
No way it was never gonna be enough
By the way I looked and the way I talked
I was running away from the monsters in my head

You see, I'm born again
A new creation
You see, I'm born again
A new sensation

I was so blind till I saw the light
Everyday right before my eyes
And this time I'm gonna show you that I really changed
And there's a new day, where I'm coming
It's a new day, where I'm going
It's a new day, where I'm standing
It's a new day, I'll be showing you

Oh I'm born again
A new creation
You see, I'm born again
A new sensation

Know my direction cause I know where I'm coming from So full of confidence I embrace the day with loving arms

You see, I'm born again
A new creation
You see, I'm born again
A new sensation
