This wine, your eyes
Matching so sublime
And I'm sure I pour divine boy
Yes with grace, I'll throw it in your face
And make 'm laugh in a very public place

If you won't listen to what I say boy
Just be sure to slink away
My shoe, your crotch
You will only feel the pain
Of a girl unrestrained

It was cruel, I know I know, I love it
It was crass, I know I know, I had to
And I think, you know you know, you needed it bad

Ain't it time to read the signs, boys
Can't you see I draw the line, boy
Don't you feel, I just had enough
And I'm about, I'm about to play it rough

It was cruel, I know I know, I love it
It was crass, I know I know, I had to
And I think, you know you know, you needed it bad

And I'm no saint and I will not be contained, no way, no way, no way I'll be tamed, no way

It was cruel, I know I know, I love it
It was crass, I know I know, I had to
It was cruel, I know I know, I love it
And I think, you know you know, you need it
It was cruel, I know I know, I love it
It was crass, I know I know, I had to
And I think, you know you know, you needed it bad

And I'm no saint and I will not be contained, no way, no
way, no way I'll be tamed, no way
