"Rebel Soul"

We've got nothing to prove but you've got something to lose.

We might not take it all, we only want yr rebel soul.

Give a little rebel, I've got a blue heart.

Give a little rebel, and it's a new hurt.

It's time to let the people know.

You'll never take our rebel soul.

A bad influence on youth,

But we're the message of the truth

Teen-c power unites us all

And all the kids have got a rebel soul.

Our spirits will never sell out, but yr mind is a shadow of doubt.

Won't be diluted to satisfy you, no matter what you think is true.

Give a little rebel soul, I'm not your playtoy

Give a little rebel soul, the rebel soul boy.

It's time to let the people know.

You'll never take our rebel soul.
