God let me create the devil my friend
Which side to choose in the end?
Whichever side showers me
With gifts scars and drug money

God let me create the devil my friend
Which side will I choose in the end
The one that's winning of course see
I'm built of pure hypocrisy
The king of bullshit I'll tell no lie
Unless it's better on the other side
Take your purse please pay no mind
Hide in you sealed and signed
Don't believe me look inside
By that time I'll be in my ride
Halfway to Georgia on the other side
Halfway to Georgia on the other side

God let me create the devil my friend
Which side to choose in the end
Whichever side showers me
With gift scars and drug-money

Maybe baby I don't know
I slit my throat a mile ago
I've changed my mind I just don't know

Give me the knife or slit your throat

I have arrived on the other side
Otherwise, later guys
I'll take a risk and improvise
Out of sight, out of mind
Don't ask me, don't ask why
No matter what you say, I'll deny
No matter what you say, I will lie
No matter what you say, this rule applies

God is my maker the devil is my friend
Which side will I choose in the end
Whichever side showers me
With gifts cars and drug money

Maybe baby I don't know
I slit my throat a mile ago
I've changed my mind I just don't know
Give me the knife or I slit your throat

Maybe baby I don't know
I slit my throat a mile ago
I've changed my mind I just don't know
Give me the knife or I slit your throat
(repeat)
