We've been friends for so long, I know I'm not wrong
That something's got you down and caused you pain
But you're trying to hide the hurt that's inside
You think you should be strong and never say I know you too well, your smile is no disguise
Let me in, don't you realize

When you find you need a friend, someone who will understand
You can always depend on me
When you think nobody cares, turn around and I'll be there
You can always depend on me
Don't you know, you can always depend on me

Oh, I love how we laugh, the fun that we have I can't believe how close we have become We talk everyday and there is no way That I could see you cry and just walk by You kept on my side, when no-one else would try
Let me in, don't you realize

When you find you need a friend, someone who will
understand
You can always depend on me
When you think nobody cares, turn around and I'll be there
You can always depend on me
Don't you know, you can always depend on me

Don't you know that's the way that best friends should be
You better know that I'm right there for you
When you need a hand or want a shoulder
No matter what you're going through, oh, you're not alone
No, you're not alone

When you're lost and can't be found, I won't ever let you down
You can always depend on me
When you're feeling all alone and you think nobody knows

You can always depend on me
Can't you see that's the way friends are meant to be

When you find you need a friend, someone who will
understand
You can always depend on me
When you think nobody cares, turn around and I'll be there
You can always depend on me
Don't you know, you can always depend on me

When you find you need a friend, someone who will
understand
You can always depend on me
When you think nobody cares, turn around and I'll be there
You can always depend on me
Don't you know, you can always depend on me

When you find you need a friend, someone who will
understand
You can always depend on me
When you think nobody cares, turn around and I'll be there
You can always depend on me
Don't you know, you can always depend on me
