There's a place inside of us,
Inside me and you,
Somewhere out there in the air,
Out there in the blue.

Beyond the mountains and horizons,
Out there where the rainbow rises,
Fairy tails really do come true if you.

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Follow them wherever they may lead.

There's a light inside of us,
A shining star to guide us,

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Right from the start.

If I only had one wish,
Here's what I would do,
I would wish that everybody,
Could feel the way I do.

Somewhere out there in the moonlight,
There's a place beyond the sunshine,
Dancing on the stars is what you do when you.

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Follow them wherever they may lead.

There's a light inside of us,
A shining star to guide us,

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Right from the start.

Somewhere out there in the air,
Out there in the blue,

Out there where the rainbow rises,
Fairy tales come true.

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Follow them wherever they may lead.

There's a light inside of us,
A shining star to guide us,

Follow your heart,
Follow your dreams,
Right from the start.
