What's in this for me?
Please get the fuck out of my house and stay in your own

In violent trespass, I often wonder what to do Nothing for you
Dream aloud and tell your friends where to go

And now you know you've wasted everything in life

What's new? Don't tell me
I know your band has gone quite far
I don't care
I don't hear
You're talking smack now
You know you're getting rather old
Dream aloud and tell your friends where to go

And now you know you've wasted everything in life
