With enough love to light up a sky Earth mustâ€™ve asked the Sun for a sign and he smiled
No reply, just shined, itâ€™s no surprise, I see
As the winds made love to the Seas
The sand dance to the rhythm of the breeze
I believe in a Heaven
Inhaling the presence when I breathe in the essence
As the seasons change, colors of the trees exchelet Got me ready to Spring outta Autumn Thoughts falling like leaves and Bee caught em like sneeze during Winter though Fired in the heat of the Summer
Knew a girls name, pretty as a worldâ€™s name Wondered with her own plans
Standing in a dream, hands stretched like wings Trying hold on to something concrete
Like peace, live once, like 3 lost months to weeks
Days, pass the blunts
Let her grab that once
Bet she hasnâ€™t dreamt about this yet
Bet, some summers you just never forget
Till the day always don't mean I'll be okay
Till the night I'll be alright with no delay
Visualize open your eyes you'll see your way
It's yours and mine, no dream divine, I see the rays
Uh, Yeah, check it out Thoroughbred, whole century later now we ahead
Pause, no skipping 'em either Bought me a red tape and spit a razor like you walk with the dreads
Them shooting phazers can't fade him he blessed Vibing out to the child, because son don't rest Let you catch him at the riverbank fresh off the last train of thought, lost Throwing stones in the dark
Who cares, when charisma can be sought Cause I'm plastering charts, we art Fuck a book when they still take a look
I tell em please no pictures yo, bought to be mindful So read those scriptures, I swear, saw solemn he's still bigger than omeli

Survivors of poverty, put it on my aunties and momma b
I'd kiss em if I was me
Seen em insecurities and washed em like God's feet, golly
Boy's be on line 3, they comatose on sleep I'm next to em friendly remind, rewind through the week
Got felines and reeks like to reach might impeach if he reach
So he keep those special occasions, like heat Big fun from a fucking pan tell me that I didn't win, blunts lifted
Kiss me baby roll tight as some legs be Sitting on a pedestal, grace queen Bling gonna blind em, Wyclef bling, clotheslined out the ring
Good thing you wasn't woofing bout a dream
Have you ever seen reality, shines bright as a day Chases the moon till she falls asleep, so she's my sunshine
Till the day always don't mean I'll be okay
Till the night I'll be alright with no delay
Visualize, open your eyes you'll see your way
It's yours and mine, no dream divine, I see rays
