In all your travels and your searches You've yet to defined you purpose all misfortune as your curtain's called You still don't know why you don't know it's so so, it's so so, it's so so, it's so so so so, it's so so,
it's so so. it's so so

I don't wanna be I so don't wanna be superficial But I'm shallow and I know this I just wanna see I so just wanna see my potential but chances are I'll blow it So I'm turning off my cell why can't we be by ourselves Don't bother callin', don't wonder why, don't ring my bells

Some things are missing from the stars above
A child again I wish I was cuz everything around me cash rules
So you think you're cool cuz you're so connected Prolly ain't never been disrespected
No way money can solve my past blues
So you had your chance and you must've missed it Really I'm not too optimistic
If you saw what I've seen you'll probably scream it hurts me to watch a man become thirsty...for CREAM!
it's so so, it's so so, it's so so, it's so so (vamp) so so, it's so so, it's so so. it's so so
