So wet, so soft you're that place I run to The source of my happiness and my stress oh yeah I love you dearly I care too much there was I then us against this wilderness oh yeah I don't wanna grow old without you part of me
Been let down ever so softly I'm gonna make you beg for mercy
For that I'll make you feel sorry No I'm not perfect I know true love gets hard sometimes I will find my revenge on VALENTINE'S!!!!

i'm just gonna need you on your own
I jus can't see you on your own
I'm jus gonna need you on your own You're just like Bonnie am I still your?.....

This thing ain't workin' I left, finding courage I stepped away How strong am I if I've been looking forward to yesterday huh?
Inside your windows I stare and camp outside your doors
I have no friends though and it's all because of yours
Don't blame this on me we both helped raise this army Won't eat can't sleep for days, I've watched them all become zombies
Still all this rage it wants me, can't turn this page it haunts me Girl if I'm still your Clyde baby you could be Bonnie

i'm just gonna need you on your own
I jus can't see you on your own
I'm jus gonna need you on your own
You're just like Bonnie am i still your?..... do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do (vamp) Baby you could be Bonnie yea!!! You're still my Bonnie!!!
