we are going to be alone and i'm here again
like a fool awaiting love when you're getting thoughts to run away and let the faults to see the world it isn't on my own

i'm a believer and you're my mate i do feel like it is real

and

i won't leave it all
look deep inside my eyes
there's a hope for two like us
i won't leave it all
when your best is cold as ice
and i know it isn't real early morning the earth is like reborn again and i'm here awaiting love when your sleeping thoughts are far away and your morning words are going straight it feels like a real home

i won't leave it all
