Daylight Breaks

And I will watch it rise

I spent the night trying to run away

But I just can't leave this behind

Cuz I've been building

I've been building

I've been building some kind of life

But I'd leave it all behind

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

And I have tended

This house of cards

With an oh so steady hand

I've grown these seeds from the barest sand

I've been building

I've been building some kind of life

But I'd leave it all behind

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Cuz I've been building

I've been building

I've been building some kind of life

But I'd leave it all behind

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you

Just to be with you
