Where to begin?
This snake has left us with last years skin eyeless diamonds of a life that's been and done
Memory is blind!
Where did it end?
We fell together like an accident two lives colliding like continents
There be mountains between us and time

Low slung and highly strung, she said run with that
Low slung and highly strung, she said run with that

Chorus:
Oh lie, you can take me for a long ride
My heart is high like a returning tide
Highlight your body like a coast line

Hey miss, I always said I wouldn't reminiscence
Become too busy with regrets to create a kiss
Oh but i was unwise
Once I thought I was the hero they were waiting for
And with my words I would change the law
And remake it as mine

Low slung and highly strung she said run with that
Low slung and highly strung she said run with that

Chorus:
Oh lie you can take me for a long ride
My heart is high like the returning tide
Highlight your body like a coast line

When you were born, the golden apple
Tell them I'll answer instead!
You are my one ,my only sad maid
Go and present my, head
Go and present my, head
Go and present my, head

Chorus:
Oh lie you can take me for a long ride

My heart is high like a returning tide
Highlight your body like a coast line
