"We're Still Here"

(VERSE 1)
so tell me what your going through, sit back,kick back,when alone with you, and don't too many people know, how special life is,so i might just,i might just, show you some things in this world,that we can't afford, those hard times,that was my world, everybody's gonna ride tonight, doesn't matter if your black or white,wrong or right,yeah and if your not shy,show your true colors doesn't matter if your high,and, doesn't matter if you had a bad night, let's take a trip in and out of time, cause it's one puff,one life, if we can live it together then we can be alright,

(HOOK)
everyone is gonna be alright,and so we have no fear, even though he's gone,she's gone,
and their gone,but we're still here, everyone is gonna be alright,yeah, and so we have no fear,and so we have no fear,and so we have no fear,

(VERSE 2)
how many times have we seen them close to ya, or will they turn into a ghost to ya, and disappear to the dark side, you see the black in their eyes,like a sharks eye, i gotta let you knowwww, that you ain't aloneee, a young mother cries cause her son died on the block,yeah, that's the kinda pain that will never stop, yeah,we stay strong as an ox, and when life falls apart like a cardboard box, good men like Gato,rest in peace, yeah we know youï»¿ up in heaven kicking with Aziz, please lord,heal the world,one day at a time, and let us find what we need, find what we need,let us find what we need to be,

(HOOK)
everyone is gonna be alright,and so we have no fear,
even though he's gone,she's gone,
and their gone,but we're still here, everbody's gonna be alright,and so we have no fear,
even though he's gone,she's gone,
and their gone,the world's still here,
