Would've have said goodbye if I knew I was going Would've have hugged you twice but no one saw it coming
Now I hear you telling God that it's not fair
And I know you're wondering how I'm doing here

[Chorus]

I miss you but not that much
Cause I'm still with you I'm just not close enough
To reach out and wipe away the lonely tear that's
Rolling down your face
This is me telling you through a song
I'm okay

So go on with your life don't waste another moment
Sleep in peace tonight and wake up tomorrow knowing
That you're free to feel the sun and smile again
I'll meet you down the road but until then

[Chorus 2x]

I miss you but not that much
Cause I'm still with you I'm just not close enough
To reach out and wipe away the lonely tear that's
Rolling down your face
This is me telling you through a song
I'm okay

This is me telling you through a song
Yea it's me telling you through a song
I'm okay
