Be a human being (being bein being...)

And a real hero (hero hero hero...)

Back against the wall and ours

with the strenght of the willing the cause

A pursuit some called outstanding

Or emotionally complex

Against a grain

Left to stop at claims

Of all the thoughts your actions entertaining

And you, have proved, to be

A real human being, and a real hero

be a human being (being being being...)

A planet on a cold, cold morn'

one hundred fiftyfive people or more

All safe and all rescued

From the slowly sinking ship

What are warmer than

His head so cool

And type 'I knew what to do'

And you, have proved, to be

A real human being, and a real hero

be a human being, and a real hero

Be a human being, and a real hero

Be a human being

Be a human being (being being being...)

Be a human being.
