Good day angel, how I've missed you
I'm the father you never knew
What I did was wrong, I just wasn't wrong
My absence you suffered through
So much more than I'd dreamed
You're heaven's answer to blue

I don't deserve this, on that we're clear
Seems it's your prayers being answered here
How were you so brave? All my sins you forgave
Here you stand, a most precious view
You're much more than I'd dreamed
You're heaven's answer to blue

Ancient tears, shed their thunder
What a sound! Love lost found
Now I'll be who we both wanted me to

How were you so brave? All my sins you forgave
Here you stand, a most precious view
So much more than I'd dreamed
You're heaven's answer to blue
So much more than I'd dreamed
You're heaven's answer to blue
