Anyone can criticize
Turn you light out in their eyes
Anyone can break a heart
But who can love a child?

Anyone can dance and sing
Your heart feels like the real thing
Anyone can say goodbye
But who can love
Love a child

Who can love a child enough
To give him wings to fly
Who can love a child enough
To help her touch the sky

There's a child in all of us
And a promise you can trust
No one gets to climb the stars
Until they love a child
Tempt me who can live
Love a child...
