"Seize Love"

By candlelight, I lick your face
No fear in sight, only love's grace
You glow, and I know
My last chance, to seize love

Walls will fall, down to dust
To be loved, love I must
You glow, and I know
One last chance, to seize love

Fairy tale, I need one
Away from this dying sun
Do you see? We must dance
This last chance to seize love

And so I breathe, your soul in deep
The heavens smile, the angels weep
You glow and I know
To embrace this last chance to seize love
Yeah you glow, and I know
To embrace my last chance to seize love
